

Day 1 :	Arrive in Dibrugarh and 1 st day ride to Guijan - near Dibru Soikhowa National Park(70 Km.). Dibru Soikhowa is one of the last safe refuges remaining in Assam for some of the most endangered wildlife and endemic birds such as Feral Horse, Asiatic Wild Water Buffalo
Day 2 :	Morning short birding around Maguri beel. After breakfast biking to Dhollaghat to cross the headwaters of Brahmaputra by traditional motorized ferry with Motorcycles. Ride to Mishmi hills(130 Km.). Overnight at Dibang Valley Jungle Camp.
Day 3 :	Riding excursion to Mayudia Pass. Later visit to Idu Mishmi village cultural trail followed by a trip to Nijamghat and enjoy a barbecue picnic lunch. Return to Dibang Valley Jungle Camp with a Idu Mishmi recipe session hosted by a local Idu Mishmi family.
Day 4 :	Passighat via Dombuk(120 Km.). Overnight at Hotel. Inhabited by the indomitable Adi/Abor tribal community and primarily it was a settlements of Pasi and Minyong communities who are still living in the villages in and around Passighat.
Day 5 :	Allong(140 Km.). Allong is a small town and the headquarters of West Siang district. Located on the banks of Sippu and Syom rivers, Allong is a stronghold of Adi tribe.
Day 6 :	Along Experience. Overnight at Hotel. (For Chasing Bramhaputra also)
Day 7 :	Daporijo is a small scenic town where one can see suspension bridges over Subansiri River made from bamboo and cane - a testimony of rich tribal craftsmanship.
Day 8 :	Travel to Apatani valley of Ziro in Lower Subansiri river basin, Arunachal Pradesh. The Apatanis are well known for their unique rice/paddy culture.

	Every Apatani village follows a unique pattern by making 7 circles with their unique bamboo houses. Overnight at Apatani Homestay.
Day 9 :	Explore the valley and the unique villages. Overnight at Apatani Homestay.
Day 10 :	Travel to Majuli Island by Motorcycle and ferry (210 Km.). Majuli, the 2 nd largest riverine, has been shortlisted by UNESCO, as World Heritage Site. Overnight at Homestay or small Guesthouse accommodation.
Day 11 :	Explore to various important cultural sites of Majuli. Afternoon transfer to Jorhat(25 KM.) and overnight at Hotel.
Day 12 :	Transfer to Jorhat airport.